10. FLIGHTS AND CARRIERS

Customers acknowledge and accept the following:

Changes: Flights offered by Tourcan Vacations are conducted in accordance with the applicable tariffs of the air carrier and pursuant to regulations set out by the Canadian Transportation Agency. All such flights and rates are also subject to approval by the relevant government authorities. Consolidations and changes in the published schedule, aircraft type, days of operation, air carrier providing air transportation and flight itinerary may be undertaken at any time and without prior notice, in accordance with the air carrier's tariffs.

Schedule Check and Connecting Flights: Flight schedules are subject to change without notice. No control can be exercised over air carriers to guarantee flight schedules, which may be altered or affected by various circumstances. Tourcan Vacations will not be liable for any change of schedule or a missed flight connection, including any additional fees incurred and special, incidental or consequential damages (including the carriage of baggage) arising from the foregoing, whether or not it had the knowledge that such additional fees or damages might be incurred.

Airport check in: It is recommended that customers arrive at the airport check-in counter at least 3 hours prior to departure. Failing this their reservation could be cancelled and their seats assigned to other customers, with no right of recourse.

Seat assignment: Every attempt will be made to arrange advance seat assignment for the group. Please advise your preference on your registration form. Seat assignment cannot be guaranteed. Exit row and bulkhead seating are subject to additional fees if the airline permits advance seating of these seats. These seats usually need to be arranged at time of airport check in.

Other applicable conditions: Air transportation is subject to all applicable government regulations and is governed by the Montreal Convention, or the Warsaw Convention as the case may be, the applicable tariffs of the air carrier as well as the conditions of contract appearing on the air ticket. Any amendments or changes to the applicable carrier's general terms and conditions of carriage once filed with and approved by federal regulatory authorities, are not subject to additional public notice and are legally binding.

Refusal to transport: Removal of passengers: Tourcan Vacations shall not be liable for refusal by itself or the air carrier to transport a passenger nor the cancellation of a reserved space or removal of a passenger due to, but not limited to, safety reasons, to prevent any hazard or risk to such passenger, to any other person or property, or to the flight.

11. VALIDITY OF TICKETS

Tickets are made out in the name of the customer and are not transferable. Tickets are valid only on the dates and flights indicated. Unused portions of tickets may not be used for travel on other flights and are not subject to refund at any time.

12. BAGGAGE

Service disruptions: Some services including water, electricity, air-conditioning, security, sanitary conditions, pools, food, beverages and other services or benefits may be suspended or interrupted partially or completely during the customer's stay. Likewise, depending on the occupancy rate of hotels, a la Carte dining may be replaced by buffet or vice-versa.

Food, water and beverages: The food, water and beverages may not be up to Canadian standards. Accordingly, customers assume sole responsibility for any illness suffered while abroad or upon return owing to the quality of the food, water or beverages.

15. ROOM ALLOCATION

Hoteliers are solely responsible for room allocation, in accordance with the category reserved by customers. Should customers choose to alter their room category upon arrival at destination (upon availability), they must make their own arrangements with the hotelier and assume all additional fees levied by them.

16. CHECK-IN AND CHECK-OUT CONDITIONS

Customers acknowledge and accept that hoteliers, in accordance with international standards, request that occupants check in between 2pm and 3pm and check out generally by 12pm on the day immediately preceding a late night departure.

17. CUSTOMERS REQUIRING ASSISTANCE, DIETARY NEEDS AND CARE WHEN TRAVELING

All customers requiring special care, specific dietary needs, assistance, attention or treatment must advise Tourcan Vacations at the time of booking. Although reasonable attempts will be made to provide the services requested, TOURCAN VACATIONS cannot guarantee any/all specific requests. Facilities for special needs passengers in hotels, cruise ships may be limited. Services required for a passenger with special needs may not be available and/or subject to local surcharges or advance payment. Please check with TOURCAN VACATIONS agent prior to booking.

18. CHANGES TO TRAVEL SERVICES

If confirmed goods or Travel services are no longer available prior to the departure date or subsequent to arrival at destination, Tourcan Vacations reserves the right to substitute them for comparable goods or Travel services, or, alternatively, to cancel them. Changes to a coach/cruise or tour itinerary, Tourcan Vacations and the participating coach/cruise or tour operator reserve the right to cancel, alter or re- schedule any timing, to omit one or more stops, to substitute alternative itineraries or to otherwise amend the coach/cruise or tour content of this tour with or without prior notice to the passenger.

19. CUSTOMER RESPONSIBILITY

Health: Customers, whose physical condition so requires, must ensure that they have a sufficient quantity of any required medication with them, and that they carry such medication in their hand baggage at all times and in the original pharmacy containers. Customers must also consult competent medical authorities prior to departure about preventive medical measures. The Public Health Agency of Canada recommends that you visit your family doctor or a travel medical clinic prior to departure to advise you of precautions as it relates to your destination. Activities: Tourcan Vacations cannot be held responsible for any accident or mishap occurring at the destination during the activities in which the customers participate of their own free willing initiative.
